

Foundation Training Development Programme

Virtual Interactive Workshops

The FTPD as a Leader in Medical Education

30th April 21 and 20th May 21 – (Start 9:20 – Finish 4:00)

In response to the current challenges of face-to-face teaching, we have developed a series of engaging and interactive Zoom workshops for supervisors.

Outline

The FTPD as a leader in medical education

- Time to reflect on the challenges of the past year and how this has impacted on the delivery of foundation training
- Exploring strategies to optimise training opportunities and the learning environment in your own Trust

Coaching and Mentorship Skills

- Use coaching models and tools to ensure you use an effective approach in your relationship with trainers and trainees
- Develop enhanced skills including active listening, supportive and challenging questioning techniques, reframing and developmental feedback.

Trainees requiring additional support

- Describe the Recognise a trainee who needs specific support
- Understand & describe the factors that cause challenges for trainees
- Describe ways of giving effective feedback on performance
- Formulate SMART learning objectives and suggest ways in which they might be addressed

Facilitator - Dr Simon Frazer (Director of Doctors Training)

Simon works as a consultant in Paediatrics, professional educator, senior appraiser for NHS England and is an ILM qualified coach. He led the education services in an acute trust for 8 years as the Director of Education and deputy medical director. He has worked with HEE on several initiatives around regional induction passports and faculty development. He has experience leading the development and implementation of the RCPCH trainee portfolio and representing his college developing a revalidation portfolio with the Academy of Royal Medical Colleges.