There are many challenges for the individual who wishes to apply for LTFT training which also bring additional difficulties for both the individual, the rota leads and service delivery.

Flexible working is key to the success for many doctors having a successful return to training and is an important option to boost recruitment and retention of staff.

UHL wishes to embark on a series of workshops to look at current processes from all perspectives to optimise the transition and support to doctors.

- Departmental training leads and LTFT Champions
- JDA
- Medical HR
- Consultants involved in rota
