

Practical Ethics for the Clinician

Virtual Interactive Workshop

Kingston Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

23rd September 2021: Start 9:30 – 15:30

(Doors open for registration at 9:20, break at 11, lunch at 12:30 and tea 2:30)

Outline

Aims

- To give a grounding in practical application of ethical theory to solving ethical dilemmas encountered across a range of different specialisms
- To enhance attendees' understanding of types of ethical problem.

Objectives

- To discuss ethical theory as it applies in healthcare in different contexts e.g. at the end of life or if resources are scarce
- To identify and analyse a range of ethical dilemmas from different medical specialisms
- To apply a practical tool useful in resolving ethical dilemmas

Learning outcomes

- After this course, delegates will be better able to identify and resolve medical ethical dilemmas

Facilitator – Dr Andrew Stanners

Andrew is a Consultant Physician/Geriatrician with Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust where he is also chair of the Healthcare Ethics Group. He teaches Healthcare Ethics at the University of Leeds, where he wrote his PhD, and for the Yorkshire Deanery.

 Email: office@doctorstraining.com

 Twitter: @sifrazer

 Web: www.doctorstraining.com